Winter Family Festival 2014

Winter Family Festival Committee

You better watch out, you better not cry, you better not shout, I'm telling you why... Santa Claus is coming to the Winter Family Festival!

You better believe it! Christmas is just over a month away. Mark your calendars, the JCCC's 4th Annual Winter Family Festival will be held this year on Sunday December 14, 2014. We're starting an hour earlier this year, running from 11:00 am to 4:00pm.

Come early and enjoy lunch in the food court or get a head start on the activities! We're featuring many of the family favourites, such as the gingerbread cookie decorating, games, special holiday crafts, storytelling, and photos with Santa. New activities this year include face painting, henna tattoos, Manga art, Ikebana flower arranging, and even caricatures. We'll also have a craft market to give everyone a chance to catch up on your holiday shopping.

Just a reminder that this is a cash only event, and we do not have an ATM on-site. We are keeping the carnival-style ticket system as well (except for the craft market). Admission fees will remain the same - $5 for adults, $3 for kids ages 4-15, and free for kids under 3. Pick up a postcard at the JCCC Reception and present it at the event for 3 free activity tickets (limit of 1 postcard per family).

For craft market vendor inquiries, please contact Yuki Hipsh at the JCCC, yukih@jccc.on.ca or 416-441-2345 ext. 235 (Deadline: Tuesday November 25, 2014). For volunteer opportunities, please apply online at <http://www.jccc.on.ca/en/volunteer/> (Deadline: Tuesday December 2). For sponsorship inquiries, please contact David Leopold at chiflow@live.com. Please contact the JCCC reception at jccc@jccc.on.ca or 416-441-2345 ext. 222 for all other inquiries.

We hope to see you there!

Meet the Stars of Uzumasa Limelight at our Toronto Premiere

We are very excited to announce stars Seizo Fukumoto, Chihiro Yamamoto and director Ken Ochiai will be visiting the JCCC this month for a special screening of Uzumasa Limelight, a Q&A session and a post-screening reception with sake and sushi.

A moving, nostalgic portrait of the men behind the golden age of chanbara (sword-fighting dramas and films), Uzumasa Limelight—whose title refers to a Charlie Chaplin film about the twilight days of a stage actor—goes behind the scenes of Japan's most distinctive film genre. Its protagonist is a professional extra named Kamiyama, who has devoted 50 years of his life as a kirareyaku in sword-fighting movies produced at Kyoto's Uzumasa Studios. His specialty? He lives to die. Or more exactly "to be cut" and die a beautiful, spectacular death on the silver screen. Kamiyama, played by real-life kirareyaku Seizo Fukumoto, has become a master of the art, with his own signature style of falling down dead. Now an elderly man, he lives in very modest circumstances, but has earned immense respect from his more prominent peers, some of them movie stars. When the studio decides to discontinue its chanbara productions, Kamiyama finds himself at a loss: what will he do for the rest of his life? How can he use his specialized skills? Hope arrives in the form of a young girl named Satsuki (Chihiro Yamamoto), who soon becomes Kamiyama's disciple. Will the art of dying by the sword live on?

Uzumasa Limelight won the Cheval Noir prize and the award for the best leading actor at the Fantasia International Film Festival in Montreal as well as the audience award at the New York Asian Film Festival.

Mr. Fukumoto has been killed literally thousands of times on screen. He debuted as a ninja in the 1966 Tokusatsu classic The Magic Serpent and in such genre gems as The Street Fighter (1974) and Legend of Eight Samurai (1983). He was also famously the silent samurai "Bob" in Tom Cruise's The Last Samurai.

Date: Wednesday November 26, 2014

Time: 7:00pm

Tickets $10 (JCCC Members) $12 (Non-members). Tickets can be purchased at 416-441-2345 ext. 222 or at JCCC reception.

Notice:

We regret to inform you that, in consideration of his continuing good health, Mr Seizo Fukumoto has had to alter his schedule and will not be able to join us for the screening on Wednesday November 26, 2014. Other guests Chihiro Yamamoto and director Ken Ochiai will be attending as planned. We look forward to seeing you there.

A Co-Presentation by Toronto Reel Asian Film Festival and Toronto Japanese Film Festival at the JCCC

"A sweet and funny film, it's a delight to spend time in the company of Fuku-chan and the quirky outsiders he collects around him."

– Christopher O'Keeffe, TWITCHFILM

"Makes the most of the comedy talents of its leads with its mixture of slapstick humour and pathos working delightfully"

– Mark Adams, SCREEN DAILY

Tatsuo "Fuku-chan" Fukuda (Miyuki Oshima) is a 32-year old painter living in a charmingly decrepit apartment complex called Fukufuku Flats. Since moving to Tokyo from rural Tochigi Prefecture, Fuku-chan has held down a steady job with a small construction firm where he spends his days channeling a long-held dream of becoming an artist into painting buildings. His lonely evenings are spent mediating disputes between the oddball denizens of Fukufuku Flats including a panty thief, a slack-jawed reptile enthusiast and an aspiring enka singer.

Fuku-chan is popular, kind, generous and well-liked by everyone around him. Romantically however, his shyness around women has rendered him a disaster. One day, an unfamiliar woman turns up at Fukufuku Flats. She is Chiho Sugiura (Asami Mizukawa), his first love from junior high school 20 years earlier, and the person responsible for the traumatizing incident that led to his fear of women....

This new film from Yosuke Fujita delivers all the idiosyncratic humour we expect from a Fujita film but with an added layer of pathos and emotional complexity. The film's real revelation is Miyuki Oshima, a popular television comedienne, who plays a male character in the lead role. Her miraculous performance as Fuku-chan earned her the Cheval Noir Best Actress Award at the 2014 Fantasia International Film Festival; it is deadpan hilarious but with a heart-rending emotional underpinnings. Oshima is ably supported by Fujita favourite Yoshiyoshi Arakawa, Miyuki Oshima and Asami Mizukawa.

Date: Wednesday November 12, 2014

Time: 7:00pm

Tickets $10 (JCCC Members) $12 (Non-members)

Tickets can be purchased at 416-441-2345 ext. 222 or at JCCC reception, as well as through ticketweb at www.ticketweb.ca.

Issei Day

On Sunday October 5, 2014, the JCCC hosted its annual Issei Day - A Tribute to the Seniors of our Community. This is an opportunity to honour all those who are 70 and over. We filled Kobayashi Hall with almost 400 people in attendance. It is also interesting to note that we almost had 100 attendees who were 90 and over and we had 4 attendees who were at least 100 years old or will be this year!!! We thank all of the performers for coming out to entertain our guests. We also thank Stan Kayama and Kunio Suyama for the emceeing the afternoon.

At this time we would like to make specific acknowledgement to some of the people and groups who have helped make our Issei Day so successful in the present and the past.

We extend our appreciation to Mr. Ishii for the bentos – as well as the small group of volunteers who began filling all the bento boxes at 7:00 in the morning!

Thanks also go out to the crew of volunteers who helped with making the fantastic manju!

A special mention goes to the NJCA and Anzu Hara, who managed the registration tables and helped throughout the event. Much appreciation is also extended to the Consul General of Japan for the generous donation every year of the sake for those 90 and over.

Overall, we extend our deep-felt appreciation to the Japanese Garden Club, Keiko Ono, Dave Ohashi, the hard-working committee, staff and all the other volunteers for a wonderful event. Last, but far from least, we thank all our other donors, both large and small for their contributions towards the success of the event.

Now Hiring!

Kamp Kodomo at the JCCC is looking for an energetic, fun-loving individual to lead our March Break 2015 camp session.

The candidate's main responsibilities include the planning, organization and leadership of all Kamp Kodomo activities for children between the ages of 6 and 12. In addition, s/he will ensure that the necessary equipment and supplies are available, and will also perform any necessary administrative duties to support the program.

The candidate should have excellent organizational and communication skill with fluency in English (some Japanese language skill is preferred but not essential). Preference will be given to those with a post-secondary certificate/degree in education or recreation (ECE, ECA, B.ED.) or equivalent, and a valid First Aid certificate. The successful applicant will need to complete a criminal reference check.

The eligible candidate will be available from March 16 to 20, 2015. This is a contract position and remuneration is commensurate with skills.

Please send your resume by Monday December 1, 2014. Only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.

Shin-Nen Kai Dinner

Celebrate New Year's Day the Japanese way - with a feast!

JCCC and Tori Ichi will once again be hosting the JCCC's Shin-Nen Kai on Thursday January 1, 2015, with a glorious array of delicious festive food.

Master Chef Kunio Ishii has once again teamed up with the JCCC to present a sumptuous start to the New Year. Classically trained in French and Japanese cuisine and experienced in Hilton kitchens internationally, Ishii-san currently operates a highly successful catering company. Locally, at the former Hilton Harbour Castle in Toronto, he held the prestigious title of Main Kitchen Sous-Chef.

The 2015 Shin-Nen Kai will feature door prizes, entertainment, a 50/50 raffle, and of course, the star of the show - an absolutely luscious buffet. Over two dozen dishes of mouth-watering Osechi Ryori (traditional Japanese New Year' fare), sushi and yoshoku (North American fare) will tempt your taste buds. A cash bar is also provided.

Bring your friends and family to this unique New Year's Day event like no other in Toronto. Doors open at 4:00pm, with dinner starting at 5:00pm. Please see the inserted flyer for more details.

Plan Now to Attend JCCC New Year's Eve Dinner Dance

Rumours of the demise of this event have been greatly exaggerated! The JCCC is happy to announce that one of Toronto's most popular New Year's Eve Dinner and Dance's will be occurring once again. Come and join us on Wednesday December 31, 2014 in Kobayashi Hall.

Ralph and Theresa Yuan will provide the music for dancing and fun on Toronto's finest double sprung dance floor. As in past years, a wonderful prime rib buffet dinner will be provided by Calvert's Catering.

Tickets are $100 per person and include dinner, dancing, party favours, complimentary midnight champagne and snacks. Seating can be arranged for 8 - 10 persons per table.

Don't be disappointed! Don't miss out on this fantastic party! Buy your tickets before the deadline on Friday December 12.

For more information or ticket purchase, call the JCCC at 416-441-2345.

Zero Hour: Tokyo Rose's Last Tape Theatre: Nikkei Story from the War by Miwa Yanagi

Stranded in Japan during WWII, a young Japanese-American woman was forced to serve as 'Tokyo Rose', a radio broadcaster, for a propaganda program controlled by the Japanese Imperial Army, and was subsequently tried for treason. Seventy years later, this historic incident is brought to life through a visually stunning whodunit - conceived, written and directed by internationally renowned visual artist Miwa Yanagi. Brimming with iconic imagery from her rich body of photographic work, "Zero Hour" tells the multi-layered story of a woman caught between two nations during the war. This presentation marks Yanagi's North American debut as a theatre artist.

Performed in English and Japanese with English subtitles

Date: Saturday February 21, 2015

Time: 2pm

Tickets: $22.13 (+HST) for members & seniors
$29.21 (+HST) for non-members

Ticket sale starts Monday December 1, 2014.
Reserved seating only.

Marathon Monk Ryojun Shionuma's Talk Well Received

About 200 people filled the Shokokai Court at the JCCC, as everyone enjoyed an afternoon of inspirational talk from Reverend Shionuma. After the event, the Reverend took time to speak in depth with everyone as participants eagerly lined up to meet him.

His digital book "The Life-long Spiritual Journey of an Apprentice Japanese Bonze" is now available. URL: <http://goo.gl/NHVgbl>

November is for Remembering

Sedai Corner

THE JAPANESE-CANADIAN LEGACY PROJECT

As fall turns to winter cold, here at Sedai the month of November is for pause and reflection, before the busy holiday season. Let us take a moment to extend our appreciation to those who came before us as we mark Remembrance Day; may the brave sacrifices of our ancestors be the ideals that we all strive towards in providing a future free from prejudice.

Sedai has been very busy, assisting with the preparation of video footage and supporting documentation for the newly mounted spotlight exhibit in the Moriyama Nikkei Heritage Centre titled "Celebrating the Friendship between Canada's Jewish and Japanese Communities". We encourage all JCCC members, their family, friends, and visitors to the Centre to visit the space and read our many community testimonials. Our sincere thanks goes in particular to the many community members who stepped forward to provide their piece of the history, whether in Sedai interview, or through written submissions. Especially in a time when it is easy to find mass conflict – political, social, or religious – it seems especially important to highlight those friendships across lines of difference.

Sedai would also like to extend its deepest thanks to The Honourable John A. Fraser, and Arthur S. Hara for their interviews with Sedai Project founder Connie Sugiyama, and former Sedai Project Coordinator Lisa Uyeda. Interviews with both gentlemen were conducted through a special opportunity to speak with them in British Columbia, with regards to their assistance in the fight for Redress. The Honourable John A. Fraser – an Officer of the Order of Canada – was a member of Parliament for Vancouver South, as well as a former Speaker of the House of Commons (1972-1993). Arthur S. Hara, in working on promoting Canada's relations with the Pacific Rim as a prominent Japanese-Canadian businessman, is also an Officer of the Order of Canada, and received the Order of the Rising Sun. Their invaluable memories and perspective will be added to the mosaic that is Japanese-Canadian history, as preserved through Sedai and the JCCC Archive. Sedai would also like to extend its thanks to the Oral History and Language Lab at UBC's Museum of Anthropology for their assistance in facilitating the recording process. The lab endeavors to provide support to the greater community in recording and preserving oral histories.

If you have questions, or would like information regarding recording your family legacy, please contact Elizabeth Fujita, at elizabeth.fujita@jccc.on.ca or 416-441-2345 ext. 303.

November Origami Workshop

Dates: Wednesday November 19, 2014

Time: 7:30 – 9:00pm

Fee: $7 for JCCC members; $10 for non-members

To register, please contact the JCCC at 416-441-2345 ext. 222.

Engaging the Community with Heritage!

Heritage Corner

The Heritage Committee has been very busy, working on recent donations, projects, and events that support the Centre.

We are very excited about the range of donations that the Committee has received for our archives. We recently received 49 paintings by Canadian artist Ronald York-Wilson some of whose paintings hang in art galleries and museums across Canada and around the World. Ronald York-Wilson studied commercial art at Central Technical School in Toronto. His first notable exhibit was with the Canadian Group of Painters at the 1939 New York World Fair. He later became known for his commissioned murals, which include murals at McGill University's library, the Imperial Oil Building in Toronto, and Toronto's O'Keefe Centre, which is still retained today at the renamed Sony Centre. The Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre is extremely pleased to be the recipient of his paintings and the Heritage Art Gallery looks forward to hosting an exhibit of his works next year.

Another significant and much appreciated donation is a series of artefacts, including original cookware that had traveled with an issei family from Japan, through their internment, and kept until it was donated. Our many thanks to the Takahashi family, as these artefacts will be used to help with our educational programming for students, as well as in our exhibits.

Our Tuesday and Wednesday groups of volunteers continue to give meaning and context to the thousands of photos at the Centre. We welcome faces new and old in working with our current groups of volunteers in helping us identify people and places, so that invaluable background information will not be lost to time. We have many pictures that were taken in the various internment camps, road camps, and sugar beet farms, and your help in providing us with information or stories about these pictures is always welcomed and greatly appreciated!

Lastly, in a nod to the JCCC's Sakura Gala, which is honouring Chiune Sugihara and the Jewish - Japanese Canadian relationship that began during the move from western Canada to the eastern provinces, an exhibit of Chiune Sugihara's Visas for Life exhibit will be hosted in the Art Gallery for the month of November. As well, leading up to the Sakura Gala you may see a Tour for Humanity Bus parked in our parking lot for a few days. This mobile educational touring bus presents educational programming for students focusing on inspiring and empowering young people to take action against hatred and intolerance. The Heritage Committee is pleased to be collaborating with the Tour for Humanity program and integrating an educational program focused on the Japanese Canadian experience, along with the work of Chiune Sugihara.

The JCCC and the Tour for Humanity will be presenting an evening of programming, open to all JCCC members on Wednesday November 19, 2014 at 6:00pm, and registration is limited! For further information on this evening of collaborative programming – including registration info, please see the flyer inserted with this newsletter.

For any questions, comments, or concerns, please contact Elizabeth Fujita at heritage@jccc.on.ca, or 416-441-2345 ext. 303.

Ontario Aikido Federation Seminar @ JCCC

by Camber Muir, JCCC Aikikai

On Friday September 26 to Sunday September 28, 2014 Aikido Hokuryukai, Aikido Tendokai, and the JCCC Aikikai co-hosted the annual Ontario Aikido Federation seminar in Kobayashi Hall. More than 200 aikidoka from across Canada and neighbouring states to the south attended the three day event. Instruction was led by Hayato Osawa Shihan (7th Dan) from World Aikido Headquarters in Tokyo. Other 7th Dan in attendance were: Osamu Obata Shihan (JCCC Aikikai), Ishu Ishiyama Shihan (Vancouver West Aikikai), and Robert Zimmermann (Toronto Aikikai). Dan grading was held during the seminar with four JCCC Aikikai members being promoted. We congratulate Marina Yukhanova (Shodan), Roger Whyte (Nidan), and Masoud Arbani and Camber Muir (Yondan). Congratulations also go to Adrian Iliescu who was promoted to Yondan earlier this year at summer camp. There is no competition in our regular Aikido program so seminars provide an opportunity to meet and practice with other aikidoka and share the art of harmonizing ki.

Congratulations to Youssef!

by Ken Fukushima, JCCC Judo-Kai

Twenty-two year old Youssef Youssef of the JCCC Judo-Kai overcame a training injury to his shoulder and won the gold medal in -60kg category in the European Cup International Tournament in Tampere, Finland on Saturday September 20, 2014. This is Youssef's first international senior championship title and hopefully will lead to more. Youssef will represent Canada again in tournaments in Africa and Australia in the coming months.

Youssef won the Senior National Championships last May and led the JCCC Judo-Kai team to victory in the Hatashita Ontario Team Championships in July. He also made time to volunteer for Kamp Kodomo in the summer and generously assists the JCCC Judo-Kai instructors and students. In demonstrating perseverance, courage and loyalty and by serving as a positive role model Youssef was recently co-winner of the 2014 Nisei Veterans Award.

Congratulations Youssef for your hard work and dedication – and good luck in your upcoming competitions representing Canada and the JCCC!

Sumi-e Painting Exhibition

by the Sumi-e Artists of Canada

Sumi-e painting, one of Japan's oldest arts, is presented each year at the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre. This exhibition features over 100 paintings by some of Canada's finest sumi-e artists. Many of these artists received their seals after studying sumi-e painting at the JCCC. Using ink, brush and rice paper, these artists paint scenes from the city and country. People, animals, birds, flowers and many other subjects are found in this one of a kind show. In addition, there are demonstrations and a tea room. If you appreciate this expressive Japanese art form, you will want to be at this year's show!

Date: Saturday November 15, and Sunday November 16, 2014

Time: 12:00 to 5:00 pm

Frank Hori Foundation Scholarship at University of Victoria

This scholarship in collaboration with the University of Victoria was established by The Frank H. Hori Charitable Foundation in 2013. The scholarships will be awarded to Canadians of Japanese Ancestry. There will be two recipients per annum (one male and one female) in the amount of $5,000 each. The recipient will be decided by the University of Victoria with any combination of academic achievement and financial need. Proceeds will be towards a full time undergraduate or post-graduate studies in any faculty for students entering or already enrolled.

For more information please visit to the University web site.

Library Volunteers Needed

Library sitter needed for non-lending hours:

Tues/Thurs/Fri: 10am – 2pm

Volunteers for book lending hours:

Wed/Sat: 12:45pm – 3:15pm (library hours are 1pm – 5pm)

Must be able to:

- read Japanese and English
- use computer (basic level is sufficient)

For both volunteer positions, regular and long term commitments would be appreciated.

If interested, please contact Haruko Ishihara of the JCCC at harukoi@jccc.on.ca or 416-441-2345 ext. 228.

JCCC Library Special Book Sale

In November, uncirculated books in the JCCC library will be on sale at a special price (half price) during the library opening hours.

gi - the character above reflects the themes of this year's celebration. It means "to do what is right or moral" and, in some applications, also denotes a bond or relationship. The calligraphy was suggested and created by internationally acclaimed shodo artist Noriko Maeda.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 2014
 JAPANESE CANADIAN CULTURAL CENTRE

SIXTH ANNUAL
SAKURA GALA

Honouring
Chiune Sugihara
 and the Jewish Community
 of Toronto

The Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre's Sakura Gala features the best of Canadian and Japanese entertainment and cuisine, in recognition of exceptional contributions made by individuals to the promotion and exchange of Japanese culture and enhancing awareness of Nikkei heritage within Canada and abroad.

We are very proud to announce the recipients of this year's Sakura Award are Chiune Sugihara (posthumously) and the Jewish Community of Toronto as represented by Henry Zagdanski.

Chiune Sugihara was a Japanese diplomat who served as Vice-Consul in Lithuania during WWII. In 1940 he risked his career to issue visas to Jewish refugees so they could travel to Japan. In less than one month, he issued over 2,000 visas, resulting in his saving over 6,000 lives.

Forced relocation brought many Japanese Canadians to Toronto following internment during the war. Here they faced significant prejudice and rejection. It was the Jewish Community that offered jobs, housing and the opportunity for the Nikkei to start new lives in Toronto. Henry Zagdanski, a business owner in the garment industry, offered employment to many of this community's members including key figures in the creation of the JCCC.

The evening is hosted by CBC Radio's Mary Ito and features a performance by the Ron Davis' Jazz Quartet and the Nagata Shachu Japanese drummers bringing together the music of the Japanese and Jewish communities.

A Celebration of Asian Culture

Road to Asia

We regret to inform you that the Road to Asia Festival is taking a hiatus in 2014. This is due in part to the timing of another major JCCC event, and we are also working hard on planning for next year with some new approaches and fresh ideas.

Friends of the Nikkei Heritage Centre Inscriptions

You can purchase a Friends of the Nikkei Heritage Centre inscription for yourself, a friend, or a loved one, for a donation of $500. Corporate and Group inscriptions are also available at the $2,000 giving level.

To make your dedication, call the JCCC or visit us online at www.jccc.on.ca. Proceeds will support the Nikkei Heritage Centre's ongoing operation and programming.

やなぎみわ演劇公演

「ゼロ・アワー」東京ローズ最後のテープ

太平洋戦争中、大日本帝国陸軍の統制のもと発信されていたプロパガンダのラジオ放送「ゼロアワー」。そのアナウンサーで連合軍兵士たちに「東京ローズ」と呼ばれ親しまれていた日系アメリカ人が、終戦後、国家反逆罪でアメリカ国籍剥奪の上服役させられた。

それから70年の時を経て、現代美術作家やなぎみわの創作、演出で蘇る史実、そしてフィクションが織り交ざり展開されるストーリー。

戦時中二つの国家の狭間に身を置かれた日系人女性の話をアナウンサーの「声」をテーマにした美術的構成の舞台でお楽しみください。

日時: 2015年2月21日(土)午後2時

チケット: $22.13 + 税 (JCCC会員 & シニア);
$29.21 + 税 (一般)。

* チケット販売は12月1日(月)から開始されます。指定席のみ。

ライブラリー・シッターのお薦めの一冊

「死神の精度」 著、伊坂 幸太郎
第57回日本推理作家協会賞受賞作品

私はたまに一話完結になっている短編集を読む時、目次を見て順番を無視することがありますが、この本は順番に読んで正解でした。

人の死には意味や価値もない、誰が何時死のうが関係ない。でも人の死を見定めにわざわざ出向いてくる仕事だから。千葉は死神で、選ばれた死ぬべき人物を情報部の報告を元に7日間かけて見極めにやって来る調査員。千葉に「可」の報告をされた者は8日目に死ぬ。それを見届けて1件の仕事が終わる。

音楽をこよなく愛し、言動が少しずれていて怪しい、知り合って間もないのに「死ぬのは怖いか?」と聞く。人間に対して、不親切でふてぶてしいとか、他人からどう見られるかを気にする珍しい生き物、などと思っているこの調査員千葉がかかった6つの人生を集めた本です。読み進むうちに2,3日前に知り合った人ってこんな感じだったかな?ん?名前は?そもそも最近誰かと知り合ったっけ?ちょっと考えてしまいました。

Fuku-chan of FukuFuku Flats

Tetsuo "Fuku-chan" Fukuoka (Myuki Oshima) is a 32 year old painter from Tochigi Prefecture. He now lives in a decrepit Tokyo apartment complex called FukuFuku Flats where his days are spent mediating disputes between its loveable, if oddball, denizens. One day the beautiful Chiko (Asami Mizukawa) appears - the girl who broke his heart in junior high school - and Fuku-chan's world is turned upside down.

Hilarious and heartwarming, Myuki Oshima, the popular television comedienne, plays the lead male role and won the Best Actor Award at the 2014 Fantasia International Film Festival as Fuku-chan with Toshiyoshi Anikawa and Asami Mizukawa.

The Making of an Archive

Did you or your family immigrate to Canada sometime in 1967 or after? Did you, your mom and dad, or any of your relatives like to take photographs? The artist Jacqueline Hoang Nguyen needs your help.

The Making of an Archive is an online archive, recording the everyday life by immigrant and amateur photographers in order to investigate the ideological formation of multiculturalism in Canada and the limits of its representation.

The artist became increasingly interested in the everyday routines and daily realities of being an immigrant, particularly in its mundane imagery. Jacqueline draws inspiration from the photo albums of her father, an amateur photographer who took countless images of his daily life. Currently, his photo collection sits in a basement, hidden away like the other collections of immigrants who documented their daily life when they came to this country, and those images that will soon disappear, becoming forgotten or lost.

The artist aims to collect these images (photographs in 35mm and 120mm prints, Polaroids or slides) by inviting you to share your family photo albums, digitize its content, and record your history for the making of an online archive. You can find more information at <http://www.themakingofanarchive.com>.

Come with your photo albums to digitize your photographs and record your history.

Wednesday November 12
1-5pm
Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre (JCCC)
6 Garamond Ct
Toronto, ON

All events are free and open to the public.

The Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre and
The Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center invite you and your children to a special, one-time event on November 19, 2014 from 6:00 – 7:30 p.m.

This evening program includes:

- a session on the Tour for Humanity Bus, a state of the art mobile classroom, focusing on historical events in Canada that involved racial issues and current issues of cyber-bullying,

- a session in the Moriyama Nikkei Heritage Centre located in the heart of the JCCC focusing on the Japanese Canadian experience during WWII, and
- a tour of the Chiune Sugihara, Visas for Life, exhibit in the Gallery, which highlights how one man worked to save thousands of Jewish lives during WWII even though it was against his government's orders and jeopardized his own life.

Please join us for this one-time event by completing the registration form below and sending or submitting it to: JCCC Reception, 6 Garamond Court, Toronto, Ontario, M3C 1Z5.

Registration is limited to 30 participants and will be taken on a first come, first served basis.
Registrations must be received before November 17, 2014.
