"I'm Sansho Nakamura, a rakugo artist visiting from Kumamoto, Japan. Rakugo is a traditional Japanese storytelling art form which has been performed for over 400 years. In the stories of Rakugo, various kinds of people live together - sometimes quarrelling, sometimes helping each other. Rakugo depicts scenes of human life, and provides an occasion for audience to laugh at their own foolishness, and also appreciate the charming and humane parts of us all.

The featured story for this event is "Matsuyama mirror". The story takes place a long time ago in Matsuyama village. At that time, mirrors were not yet widely available. One day, a farmer named Shousuke saw a mirror without knowing what it was... Please come to this special performance to listen to the rest of the story unfold in both English and in Japanese."

Spring Festival 2015

After a February that was the coldest in recorded history, Torontonians were desperate for any sign that Spring was on the way. This must have been the reason why thousands of visitors flocked to the JCCC for its annual Spring Festival/ Haru Matsuri.

Upon entering the building, visitors were awed by the impressive Hina Ningyo doll display. But the visual attractions didn't stop there. Throughout the building were many more spectacular, one-of-a-kind displays related to the Samurai theme. Included in this array were several swords from the private collections of members of JCCC's sword appreciation club, the Token Kai.

In Kobayashi Hall visitors found a variety of vendors, and cultural crafts as well as live entertainment. Of course, there were also demonstrations of martial arts in the dojos, tea ceremonies, a vast selection of Japanese food and more vendors throughout the building. At the other end of our building, we had a bustling room of activities for children, including a Japanese Style painting activity run by our artist in residence Nao Uda and many enthusiastic volunteers.

With all that there was to see and do, it was no wonder everyone had a great day!

The JCCC thanks the individuals, groups and organizations that provided the entertainment and demonstrations. We also thank all the great volunteers and staff, who helped raise this great community tradition to new and greater heights!

Kamo Room at the JCCC Officially Opens

The official opening of Kamo Room (formerly Multi 2A) at the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre was held on Monday March 9, 2015. During this intimate reception with the Kamo Family, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kamo were presented with the Kamo Room plaque by Gary Kawaguchi, JCCC President.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kamo made a generous donation to the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre in memory of Denzo and Kiku Kamo.

The reception featured a performance by the Ohana Hula Club's Golden Luna and Moana groups, showcasing an example of the cultural classes and activities that take place in the Kamo Room on a daily basis. Located on the second floor of the JCCC, the Kamo Room is also a centre of activity for Japanese language classes, ping pong, and dance groups Himawari Buyo, Ayame Kai and Sakura Kai.

The JCCC is greatly appreciative of Mr. and Mrs. S. Kamo for their generous donation and support in the promotion of Japanese culture. See the bustling activities in the Kamo Room next time you visit the JCCC!

Sedai Heads West!

Sedai Corner

THE JAPANESE CANADIAN LEGACY PROJECT

We've officially turned the corner and entered spring, and Sedai has some fresh updates to keep you in the loop!

First, Sedai would like to thank and acknowledge interviewee Haruyuki "Harry" Okada, for taking the time with the Sedai Project to document his family's history through an invaluable collection of photos and anecdotes to accompany his interview. Having been born into Japanese occupied China shortly before the outbreak of World War II, Harry's memories of people and places, captured in photographs but remembered in detail, have added an incredible layer to his recorded interview.

Second, Sedai would like to begin highlighting stories, anecdotes, and individuals who you can learn more about on our website, at www.sedai.ca. First up is Sedai interviewee and dear friend, Keo Shibatani. After adding his unique voice to our archives about his experiences in Tashme, and enlightening us on the difficulties many Canadian Nikkei faced upon landing in postwar Japan, Keo has continued to give back to the community through his spirit of volunteerism. Most recently, Keo assisted the coordinators of the 20th Glendon Annual International Studies – Japan Symposium, coordinated by York University. Sedai Project friends Frank Moritsugu and Dr. Greg Robinson also took part in leading discussions of Japanese Canadians and the concepts of identity. For more information on the symposium, which occurred in March, visit www.japansymposium.com. As well, visit sedai.ca for archived video footage of Keo!

Lastly, do you know anyone in the greater Vancouver area whose story should be added to the Sedai Project? Sedai will be making a special trip to the west coast this year, and would love to increase the depth and breadth of stories in our archives. If you would like to step up and support our community records, or if you know someone who should be a part of our recorded mosaic (in Vancouver, in Toronto, or otherwise!), please contact Elizabeth Fujita-Kwan, at elizabeth.fujita@jccc.on.ca or 416-441-2345 ext.303.

Current and Upcoming Exhibits

Heritage Corner

At last, spring has officially sprung! Here are the latest updates from Heritage – check out our upcoming events, exhibits, and more!

This year's Haru Matsuri saw record attendance, and the Archive and Collections Committee was proud to be able to create a number of displays throughout the building. Come check out the ongoing display of samurai culture related artefacts, ukiyo-e (woodblock) prints, and our spotlight exhibit on the relationship between the Jewish and Japanese Canadian communities from the postwar Toronto area. Keep an eye out for developing displays near the entrance to the Moriyama Nikkei Heritage Centre.

As well, the Ontario Legislative Assembly will be housing a display from the JCCC Collection beginning in April, running through to the summer. If you have a chance, stop by Queen's Park for a free public tour, to see what Archive and Collections has put together on behalf of the community.

And lastly from our archives this month, the JCCC was thrilled to receive a donation of two works by Japanese Canadian artist Shizue Takashima. Her works will be on display beginning in May – look out for them in Heritage Court (at the entrance to the Heritage Lounge).

The Arts Committee has been busy preparing a series of exciting exhibits for the community and public at large.

First, we are pleased to present an exhibition of works by Canadian artist York Wilson, for the month of May. These works are a series of paintings based on the poetry of Japanese poet Hagiwara Sakutarō, which appeared in the publication Face at the Bottom of the World.

In June, our next exhibit will be a presentation by JCCC Artist in Residence, Nao Uda. Originally from Yokohama, Japan, Nao graduated from the School of Visual Arts in New York, and has shown her work in the U.S., Japan, Taiwan, and Jordan. Her upcoming exhibit titled "316 Powell Street" is about her grandfather, who was born in Vancouver in 1924. Nao has created a fictional memory of her grandfather – who had passed before she could hear the story of his life – through her art. Works on display will be inspired by and researched through the oral histories and archives at the JCCC, as well as several trips to her grandfather's birthplace on Powell Street. Nao and the JCCC would like to acknowledge the support of the Pola Art Foundation in Japan for her upcoming exhibit.

And lastly from the Arts Committee is an open call to artists in the community for ARTSU MATSURI 2015! Returning after a two-year hiatus, the JCCC Gallery will be home to an exhibition of works in various media, by community members. For artist registration information, please contact Elizabeth Fujita-Kwan, Manager of Heritage and the Sedai Project, at the details below. The show runs from July 2nd to the 16th – be sure not to miss it!

Lastly, the Moriyama Nikkei Heritage Centre was pleased to have Seneca Hill Collegiate, and students from Aoyama Gakuin in Aoyama, Japan, visit the Centre and learn about the history of Japanese Canadians. For many of the students, learning about the history of Japanese Canadian internment and forced relocation was a new experience. Heritage would like to thank the wonderful Archives volunteers and Sedai interviewees for their assistance in bringing history to life!

For any questions, comments, or concerns, please contact Elizabeth Fujita-Kwan, Manager of Heritage and the Sedai Project at heritage@jccc.on.ca, or 416-441-2345 ext 303.

Recognizing our Volunteers

JCCC Volunteer Committee

This year's Spring Festival saw one of the largest participation of volunteers, with over 200 volunteers involved in every aspects of the 2-day event. The success of all JCCC events depends heavily on the dedication of our volunteers. In return, the JCCC wants to ensure that all volunteers are duly recognised. In light of this, the JCCC would like to ask for your partnership in helping us update our volunteer database. This database is an important tool to keep record of everyone who has contributed their time to the various activities at the JCCC. The JCCC wants to learn more about the length of time and the kinds of activities that our volunteers take part in. This information will also be used each year as the JCCC nominates volunteers for Ontario's Volunteer Service Awards. Therefore, we would like to kindly ask all volunteers- veterans and newcomers- to fill out a 2015 Volunteer Profile. All information provided to us will be kept strictly confidential.

This form is accessible online for your convenience at www.jccc.on.ca/en/volunteer, and paper copies are also available at the JCCC reception. If you have any concerns regarding the volunteer profile form, please contact Yuki Hipsh at 416-441-2345 ext.235 or volunteer@jccc.on.ca.

Theatre Production Zero Hour @ JCCC

Miwa Yanagi and her production team treated a full house in the Kobayashi Hall to an entertaining and thought-provoking production of "Zero Hour: Tokyo Rose's Last Tape". The themes drawn from the play also led to some lively Q&A discussion with producer Miwa Yanagi herself. This was JCCC's first foray into live theatre on this scale, but given the success of this production, it won't be our last! Many thanks to the audience and hardworking volunteers.

JCCC Judo-Kai competitors win in British Columbia

Ken Fukushima, JCCC Judo Kai

On February 25 to 28, 2015, the Canada Winter Games were held in Prince George, BC. Three athletes from the JCCC Judo Kai were part of Team Ontario. Brothers Mohab and Shady El Nahas won gold medals in the Male -81kg and -90kg categories respectively, and Yassin Youssef won the bronze medal in the Male -60kg category. After their individual competitions, all 3 of the JCCC Judo-Kai members were selected for Ontario's entry in the Team Judo event. In the finals against Quebec, Mohab won his match with a beautiful ippon throw and Shady won his match in dominant fashion to clinch the Team Judo gold medal for Ontario.

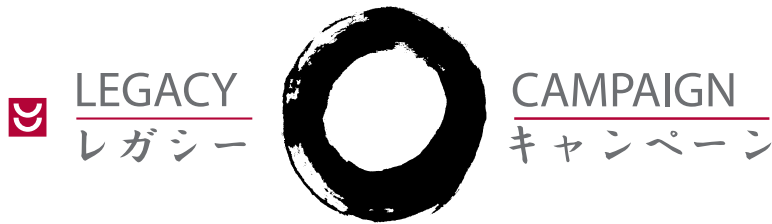

On March 7 & 8, 2015, at the Pacific International tournament held at the Olympic Oval in Richmond, BC, Shady won double gold by placing first in both the U21 and men's -90kg category, and Youssef Youssef won the gold medal in the men's -60kg category with wins over opponents from Japan and BC then finishing with a spectacular ippon throw in the finals against his opponent from Quebec.

More good news - as the number 1 ranked competitor nationally in his category, on March 2, 2015 Youssef Youssef was named to the Canadian Team for the Pan American Judo Championships that will be held in Edmonton this April.

Congratulations to all for the good results coming from your hard work, with best wishes and support for continued success!

The JCCC has Been There for You and Your Family Now is the Time for Family Philanthropy and Your Family Legacy

Making your philanthropy a family enterprise is an extraordinary opportunity that can benefit your family in many ways and result in creative and significant contributions to society. At its best, family philanthropy is the pooled product of the family's ideals, creativity, diverse skills and passions. Working together on philanthropic giving can be a deeply satisfying and enjoyable experience for a family and have major impact on the family's well being. The potential benefits of family philanthropy include:

- A deepened connection to each other and a bridge to the outside world through a sense of shared enterprise on important social and community issues.
- A forum for collaboration and problem solving within the family.
- A chance to express and test values that the family as a whole believes in and is willing to stand for.
- An inter-generational common ground that increases communication, sharing and understanding within and across generations.

Overall, with the right tools and guidance, family philanthropy can be one of the best opportunities to strengthen and pass on a real family legacy in the community. The JCCC has provided this opportunity to many families and is prepared to help ensure that your family giving makes the most difference for you and the community.

As the JCCC starts the see spring blossom, we ask the community to ponder giving to the Yesterday Today Tomorrow Campaign. Let's make 2015 the year in which your passion for the cause, the community and your family is transformed into precision in terms of a gift that truly makes a difference.

If you have any questions regarding the Capital Campaign, or if you would like to learn more about Leaving a Legacy at the JCCC please contact William Petruck at 416-249-0788 or wpetruck@fundingmatters.com

Fred Sasaki Makes an Estate Gift to the JCCC Foundation

Fred Sasaki was a tremendous benefactor and extraordinary volunteer to the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre. Fred played an integral role in helping to build a legacy for our community, which will hold for many future generations to come. He was a founding member of the JCCC Foundation and a dedicated and contributing leader and volunteer at the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre. Fred also shared his stories about growing up and how his family was affected by the internment with the JCCC's Sedai Project.

Fred is one of the largest individual donors to the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre. He was generous to the JCCC in his lifetime, donating to the JCCC's capital campaign and was a founding funder of the Sakura Gala. The JCCC honoured Fred with an Ishizue Award. The Award acknowledges and expresses appreciation and respect to members or friends of the Japanese Canadian community who have made exceptional contributions to the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre over many years.

Beyond these previous gifts to the JCCC, Fred made a provision in his estate for a gift to the JCCC Foundation. The JCCC Foundation is focused on capital preservation and supports the JCCC annually through a disbursement. The JCCC will always be grateful for Fred's generosity, support and leadership.

Intimate Classical Concert in Niagara Wine Country

Christine Mori, Bravo Niagara!

On Saturday April 25, 2015, Bravo Niagara! presents a dynamic duo, internationally-acclaimed concert pianists, Mari Kodama and her daughter Karin Kei Nagano. Hailed as "Commanding and electrifying" by The LA Times, Osaka-born pianist Mari Kodama has established an international reputation for her profound musicality and articulate virtuosity in performances throughout Japan, Europe and North America.

A major highlight of the season for Mari is the release of the complete collection of Beethoven Piano Sonatas as a box set (Pentatone), the culmination of more than a decade's work.

Born to a musical family, 15-year-old Karin Kei Nagano is the daughter of Mari Kodama and renowned Maestro Kent Nagano of the Montreal Symphony Orchestra. She recently released her first CD with the Cecilia String Quartet, which has been highly acclaimed by the press. Karin travels extensively with her parents, regularly joining them on their international tours, in addition to splitting her academic and professional studies between Paris and Munich. Don't miss this rare opportunity to hear these two phenomenal pianists perform together in Niagara-on-the-Lake. Experience the synergy of music and wine as Bravo Niagara! transforms Stratus Vineyards' Press Alley into an intimate, industrial chic concert hall with a 9-ft Steinway taking centre stage. For tickets and more information, please visit www.bravoniagara.org.

中村山椒落語会

JCCCにて久方ぶりの落語の高座が行われます。日本は熊本からお迎えする落語家は中村山椒さん。演目は『松山鏡』。日本語と英語、それぞれ約30分の高座ですので、最初に日本語で聞いた話を英語と比べてみるのも面白いでしょう。この春一番の笑いをJCCCでいかがですか？

日時：4月10日(金)午後7時より

入場料：5ドル(JCCC会員)、$7(一般)；

席の調整のため予約をお願いします。

チケット購入はJCCC受付、または416-441-2345までお願いします。

落語家、中村山椒さんのご挨拶：

「はじめまして。日本で落語をしている中村山椒と申します。

落語は400年程前から日本で話されている伝統的な話芸です。落語の世界では、様々な人々が一緒に暮らし、時にケンカして、時に助けあって生きています。ここでは、人間が持つどうしようもない部分を、笑い、そして認め、愛す様子が描かれています。この面白くも温かい落語の世界を、たくさんの人に知ってもらいたいと思っています。

今回は『松山鏡』という、昔々、まだ鏡が全国津々浦々まで広まっていなかった頃のお話をさせていただきます。松山村という村に住む、しょうすけという男が、鏡というものを知らずに、初めて鏡を見るところから物語が始まります。

この話を今回は英語と日本語でさせていただく予定ですので、是非とも聴きにきてください。」

ボランティアの皆様のより安全を目指して

ボランティアコミティより

3月7日と8日に開催された春祭りは大盛況でした。この春祭りだけに限らず、JCCCイベントがいつも大成功におさめられるのは、ボランティアの皆さまが、どのような仕事にも責任を持ち協力し合って働いて下さるお蔭です。JCCCは、常にその皆さまが安全で快適なボランティア活動をして頂けるよう、安全確保とその運営管理を保っていかねばならなりません。

その一つとして、ボランティア一人一人の個人情報管理の徹底を開始しました。長期ボランティアの方も、新しくボランティアを始める方も、全てのボランティアの皆様の『ボランティアプロフィール』を収集しています。このプロフィールは、万一何かあった時のための緊急連絡先や、どのエリアでボランティアをして下さっているかの把握、毎年オンタリオ州により表彰されるボランティアサービスアワード受賞者の選出に役立てるため、ボランティア募集要項のご案内など様々な事に利用されますが、個人情報は厳重に管理されます。

今後のボランティアプログラム向上に向けて、また皆様の安全のためにも、まだご提出されていない方はぜひご協力よろしくお願い致します。

Notes on the Nikkei Artists Exhibit, Artists Talk on March 15th, 2015

By John Ota, JCCC Arts Committee

In vivid contrast to the worried talk about high levels of intermarriage and the eventual disappearance of Japanese Canadians from the face of the earth, the comments from four young female Japanese Canadian artists were all about uniqueness, finding their roots and preserving culture. Through sculpture, ceramics, etchings and dress design, the edgy works of Emma Nishimura, Hitoko Okada, Laura Shintani and Naomi Yasui express concerns about traditional Japanese elements, gender, internment, uprootedness and relationships between the generations.

WARNING: This is more like a Yoko Ono conceptual art installation than pretty pictures. Nevertheless, the pieces are visually compelling as well as intellectually substantial. "There were stories that we were never told," says artist Nishimura. "Now I want to know what happened." Let the discoveries continue.
